

errien
rake-
ed.

that
Pe-
ning

Hud-
gular
first

day,
the
train

n of
aster
e by

ens-
ysis,
y by

s to

county would be saved $1,000 a year.—New Bethlehem Vindicator.

Thomas Klugh, of Sugaroreek township, Armstrong county, left his home on February 1st., 1887, and has not been heard of since. He is twenty six years of age, about five feet six inches in height, dark hair, smooth face, and he is supposed to be insane. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Klugh, Adams, Armstrong county.

Last Thursday, Daniel Yount, a young man 21 years of age was instantly killed while cutting down timber near Frantz's mill in Kittanning township, Armstrong county. He and another man were engaged in the work, and Yount, having cut half way through the tree, seated himself while his partner completed the task. When the tree fell, a branch rebounded and struck Yount on the head fracturing his skull.

na
he
pro
and
the

I
ind
bu
on
the
tra
eje
of
at

Cl
mos
and
the
The
quit
siur

T
lega
was
the