

Deaths of the Day

Sr.

George R. Christley

aged 58, wife died suddenly
at 314 Vir-
clock last

George R. Christley, aged 80, of West Middlesex, died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night in his home, following a lingering illness.

she died shortly
at church last week to her
a few min-

Mr. Christley was a former resident of Butler county, and was a retired railroad employe.

she was a
William J.,
and had children.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mariam Christley; two sons, Harry Christley of Detroit, Mich., James Christley of Allison Park, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Kummer of Unionville; a brother, E. J. Christley of Greenville; three sisters, Mrs. Leah Allen of Butler, Mrs. Rose Lawrence of Nixon, and Josephine Christley of Butler.

Margaret
Wilma Mc-
and Ruth
three sons,
O., George
Edward M.
17 grand-
Elizabeth
three broth-
in Mateo, O., and
R. D. 4.
of the Sal-
of Malta

Mr. Christley was a member of Kendron lodge 389 F. and A.M., Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Valley of New Castle, a life member of the Loyal Order of the Moose, Farrell lodge 55, and West Sunbury Independent Order of Odd Fellows, 1154.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Cunningham Funeral home, West Middlesex.