

James Klugh, Former City Resident, Dies

James L. Klugh Sr. of Baltimore, Md., a former resident of Oil City, died Monday, Sept. 18, in Baltimore, following a lengthy illness.

Born in 1893 at Ford City, Mr. Klugh at one time owned and operated a confectionary store at the corner of East Front and State Streets. He had also been employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

In 1941 he moved to Baltimore, where he was employed by the Bal-Mar Corp.

In 1941 he moved to Baltimore, where he was employed by the Bal-Mar Corp.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Charles (Marie) Master of Oil City and Mrs. Arthur (Virginia) Flippo of Baltimore; three sons, Harvey (Hud) of Oil City, James L. II of Baltimore and Sgt. Ronald Klugh of Colonial Heights, Va.; a half sister, Mrs. Joseph (Cora) Youkers of Butler; three half brothers, Rene Myers, Theodore Klugh and Frank Klugh, all of Karns City; and 14 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Sept. 20.

Son of James H. Klugh & Hockenberry.
From: Derrick (Oil City, PA).
September 29, 1967, p20.