

GENERAL AFFIDAVIT FOR ANY PURPOSE.

State of Pennsylvania County of Armstrong S. S.

In the matter of The claim for original Invalid Pension No. 2164, P. 39 of John Blugis late Private in Co. "E" 14th Regt Penn^a Cavalry Volunteers personally comes the affiant who being first sworn, on oath says: I am well acquainted with the claimant above named. I have known him for about 21 years. I know that he was a sound man and a stout man before he went into the service above named in the late war. I have known him continually since he came home from the army, about the 23rd of April 1863. That I know that he has not been well since but has been broken down and suffering from a disease called jaundice that he has never been able to work since he came from the army as he did before the war. He cannot stand for days work now, on account of weakness caused by aforesaid disease.

I know these things for the reasons that I am a neighbor of his and have worked with him before and since he came from the army and he has worked for me.

and affiant further swears that he is not interested in the prosecution of the claim, and his Post Office address is
