

ASKS $25,000 FOR WIFE'S LOVE

R. B. STONE SAYS PARENTS INTERFERED

Alleging that A. G. Weeter and Anna L. Weeter have influenced plaintiff's wife to remain in their home and not to return to him, Robert B. Stone has entered suit to recover damages in the sum of $25,000.

Plaintiff on June 26, 1929, was united in marriage with Le Ana Weeter, a daughter of A. G. Weeter and Anna L. Weeter of Manor township.

Following the marriage the couple removed to plaintiff's home in Stoneville, N. C., and took up their permanent residence there according to the statement filed.

Plaintiff avers that his wife was satisfied and contented in her home and at all times furnished plaintiff with companionship and society and the assistance due plaintiff as the husband of said Le Ana Weeter.

It is set forth in plaintiff's statement that Mr. and Mrs. Weeter on November 18, 1929, called at the home of the plaintiff and his wife and stated to plaintiff that they had come to make a family visit.

Plaintiff avers that the defendants, A. G. Weeter and Anna L. Weeter unlawfully contrived and wrongfully, wickedly and unjustly intending to injure him and to deprive him of the comfort, fellowship, society and assistance of his wife did on November 21 threaten, rather than induce her to abandon him and to return to his home in Stoneville, N. C., and to take up their permanent residence there.

Plaintiff avers that the defendants, A. G. Weeter and Anna L. Weeter unlawfully contrived and wrongfully, wickedly and unjustly intending to injure him and to deprive him of the comfort, fellowship, society and assistance of his wife did on November 21 threaten, rather than induce her to abandon him and to return to his home in Stoneville, N. C., and to take up their permanent residence there.

TROOPER'S SLAYERS IN KITTANNING?

Girls With Escorts Reported Kidnapped

ADVANTAGES SENT TO JAIL HOSPITAL

When five physicians testifying for the state denied that Alexander Pantages, convicted millionaire theatrical magnate, is threatened with a fatal illness, motion of his attorneys to release him from jail at Los Angeles was denied.

Four men held up the West restaurant, East End and took $150 from the cash register. They escaped in an automobile.

Miss Mary Adamson, 40, of Christie Shannon, was instantly killed today when the automobile in which she was riding crashed into a pole near Glenwood.

Clarence Hulton, 21, of Oakmont, is in Pittsburgh hospital suffering from a probable fractured skull received when he was struck by an automobile near his home last night.

James M. Phelan, who last fall led Purdue University to its first Big Ten championship, has signed a three-year contract to coach football at the University of Washington.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Chicago's first murder case of the year moved swiftly toward culmination today with the youth police said had confessed to committing it in an alley and other guests at the New Year's Eve party where William Havenann was shot to death on the stroke of midnight.

After wandering through crowds of revelers in the Loop district early yesterday, Albert Lambert, 37, fled into a police station and quietly confessed his guilt, the police claim.

Charged With Stealing Chickens Charged with stealing chickens, Milt Keener and Tom Wadling were lodged in the county jail Wednesday on a commitment issued by Squire R. C. Ambrose, Rufus Wiley.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Kidnappings of two girls featured more than a score of holdups and robberies over New Year's day, according to police reports.

Miss Betty Seifert, standing in front of her home yesterday with Paul Meeder, a companion, was forced to enter a car by two holdup men.

Three bandits early today held up Henry Arnold, Bellevue, R. D. No. 7 and Miss Mildred Ridenbaugh, 16, North Side, and forced them to alight from Arnold's packed car.

Four men held up the West restaurant, East End and took $150 from the cash register. They escaped in an automobile.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Senator James E. Watson, U. S. senator from Indiana and Senate floor leader, strongly indicated that he would not be a candidate for reelection in 1932, according to a story appearing in the Indianapolis Times today.

Alvin Cypress and Lydia Penn, both of Kittanning, were married today by Rev. J. W. Wright, St. James, Mary F. Ashbaugh, Sagamore.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Aviation is entering a year which promises great steps forward, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said in a statement in which he also reiterated his intention of continuing to fly although married and divulged plans to "fly a great deal over South America."

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Aviation is entering a year which promises great steps forward, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said in a statement in which he also reiterated his intention of continuing to fly although married and divulged plans to "fly a great deal over South America."

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Aviation is entering a year which promises great steps forward, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said in a statement in which he also reiterated his intention of continuing to fly although married and divulged plans to "fly a great deal over South America."

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Aviation is entering a year which promises great steps forward, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said in a statement in which he also reiterated his intention of continuing to fly although married and divulged plans to "fly a great deal over South America."

BLONDE AND COMPANIONS STILL FREE

Were the slayers of State Trooper Brady Paul near New Castle, in Kittanning on Monday of this week?

This is the question which has been troubling employees of the Bell garage on north McKean street.

The disappearance of Irene Schroeder and her two male companions in connection with the murder of Paul is a source of general speculation as to their leaving of Little Donnie Schroeder at the home of his uncle at Bellair, O.

There is an unconfirmed report that the Schroeder woman and her two male companions are already in custody and are being held secretly in the State Police barracks at Butler.

"SLIPPER BANDIT" APPEARS AGAIN IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—The "slipper bandit" made his reappearance here last night.

Miss Christine Tuber told police she was knocked to the street by a man who then took the shoe from her right foot.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

2 Killed, 7 Hurt In A Bus Accident

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD WRITES OF LIFE

Speaking his views into a dictaphone in his father's study, unhampered by adult presence, Jack Carruthers, eight-year-old son of Dr. John F. B. Carruthers, vice president of the Pacific Geographic society, of Pasadena, Cal., has had a book published with the imposing title, "How to Live Life."

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Edson, Co. Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Two persons were killed and seven others were injured when a Greyhound lines bus left the road and crashed into an iron bridge on the Richmond-Dayton Pike, four miles east of here today.

Those killed were Thomas Karwe, 50, Alexandria, Ind., and Esther Masters, 36, Chambersville, Ind.

The big vehicle apparently left the road when a front tire blew out. It was en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh and left Richmond Ind., about 1 a. m.

Those injured were Marian Franklin, 10, Topoka, Kas.; Charles Franklin, Staten Island, N. Y.; Eric Mahon, Sprague, Ohio; Anthony Gaylan, Akron; Bernice Hollibaugh, Detroit; Sherman Benson, Chicago; and W. R. Strain, the bus driver, whose home is in Indianapolis.

MRS. ANNIE MEREDITH PASSES AWAY IN PITTSBURGH HOME

Kittanning relatives on Wednesday received the news of the death of Mrs. Annie Meredith, wife of Philadelphia Meredith, and daughter of the late A. G. Henry, editor and proprietor of the strong Republican, a well known Kittanning newspaper.

Mrs. Meredith died at her home in East End, Pittsburgh. She survived by two daughters, Ann and Hazel Meredith, and one brother, William Henry.

The Henry family was prominent in Kittanning for years.

Funeral services will be held at the late home of Mrs. Meredith, East End, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Carrie Colwell Bergman, of this place, is a niece of Mrs. Meredith.

MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK INCREASES SURPLUS ACCOUNT

The Merchants National Bank on December 31st declared its regular semi-annual dividend of four per cent and placed $20,000 of accumulated profits to its surplus account, making the new $100,000 and equal to its capital stock.

Young Woman Meets Instant Death When Auto Crashes Into Pole

Miss Mary Adamson, 40, of Christie Shannon, was instantly killed today when the automobile in which she was riding crashed into a pole near Glenwood.

Clarence Hulton, 21, of Oakmont, is in Pittsburgh hospital suffering from a probable fractured skull received when he was struck by an automobile near his home last night.

James M. Phelan, who last fall led Purdue University to its first Big Ten championship, has signed a three-year contract to coach football at the University of Washington.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Chicago's first murder case of the year moved swiftly toward culmination today with the youth police said had confessed to committing it in an alley and other guests at the New Year's Eve party where William Havenann was shot to death on the stroke of midnight.

After wandering through crowds of revelers in the Loop district early yesterday, Albert Lambert, 37, fled into a police station and quietly confessed his guilt, the police claim.

Charged With Stealing Chickens Charged with stealing chickens, Milt Keener and Tom Wadling were lodged in the county jail Wednesday on a commitment issued by Squire R. C. Ambrose, Rufus Wiley.

Charged With Stealing Chickens Charged with stealing chickens, Milt Keener and Tom Wadling were lodged in the county jail Wednesday on a commitment issued by Squire R. C. Ambrose, Rufus Wiley.

P. P. G. VETERAN RETIRES AFTER 47 YEARS' SERVICE

After 47 years of service with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company at Creighton, Hubert Ridenbaugh, who is 77 and a carpenter, put away his tools and walked out of the plant for the last time as an employee Tuesday evening.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

WAYNE GUNN'S FATHER DEAD AT REYNOLDSVILLE

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Arrest Manager Of Theatre Where 70 Children Perished

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Goes to Coast

James M. Phelan, who last fall led Purdue University to its first Big Ten championship, has signed a three-year contract to coach football at the University of Washington.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Chicago's first murder case of the year moved swiftly toward culmination today with the youth police said had confessed to committing it in an alley and other guests at the New Year's Eve party where William Havenann was shot to death on the stroke of midnight.

After wandering through crowds of revelers in the Loop district early yesterday, Albert Lambert, 37, fled into a police station and quietly confessed his guilt, the police claim.

Charged With Stealing Chickens Charged with stealing chickens, Milt Keener and Tom Wadling were lodged in the county jail Wednesday on a commitment issued by Squire R. C. Ambrose, Rufus Wiley.

Charged With Stealing Chickens Charged with stealing chickens, Milt Keener and Tom Wadling were lodged in the county jail Wednesday on a commitment issued by Squire R. C. Ambrose, Rufus Wiley.

Charged With Stealing Chickens Charged with stealing chickens, Milt Keener and Tom Wadling were lodged in the county jail Wednesday on a commitment issued by Squire R. C. Ambrose, Rufus Wiley.

KIWANIANS TO OUTLINE WORK FOR COMING YEAR

The Kiwanis Club meets this evening at 6:15 o'clock at Kline's tea room at which time the committee chairman's work for the year will be outlined.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

VIEWERS APPOINTED ON ROAD DAMAGE CLAIMS

Four petitions were presented to the court for the appointment of viewers to make ascertainment of damages claimed to have been occasioned by a change in the existing lines in the re-construction of highways in the county.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Found Dead in Bed

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

Charles Dorrard, manager of the Glen Cinema theatre, was arrested today charged with culpable homicide. Seven children lost their lives during a panic caused by a slight fire in the theatre on New Year's eve.

STOCKS

New York, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Bulls were in control as the stock market swung into 1930 today. Prices advanced to more than 2 points in moderate turnover.

United States Steel began the year at 17 1/2 up a point from the close December 31, and Columbian Carbon gained 2 1/2 to 17 1/2.

James M. Phelan, who last fall led Purdue University to its first Big Ten championship, has signed a three-year contract to coach football at the University of Washington.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Chicago's first murder case of the year moved swiftly toward culmination today with the youth police said had confessed to committing it in an alley and other guests at the New Year's Eve party where William Havenann was shot to death on the stroke of midnight.

SENATOR WATSON TO RETIRE

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Senator James E. Watson, U. S. senator from Indiana and Senate floor leader, strongly indicated that he would not be a candidate for reelection in 1932, according to a story appearing in the Indianapolis Times today.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

LINDY WON'T QUIT

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Aviation is entering a year which promises great steps forward, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said in a statement in which he also reiterated his intention of continuing to fly although married and divulged plans to "fly a great deal over South America."

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

LEGIONNAIRES PLAN FOR BUSY TIME TONIGHT

This will be a busy evening for members of Armstrong Post, American Legion.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

DEATHS REPORTED IN NEARBY PLACES

The following deaths were reported in nearby communities this week: George Beam, 79, Muddy Creek township, Butler county.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)—Chicago's first murder case of the year moved swiftly toward culmination today with the youth police said had confessed to committing it in an alley and other guests at the New Year's Eve party where William Havenann was shot to death on the stroke of midnight.

SIX FOR PRICE OF FOUR

"Six for the price of four" is now the rule when it comes to inserting Wants, For Sale, Lost, For Rent, Found and any other classified advertisements in The Leader-Times.

Wayne Gunn, father of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.

Wayne Gunn, 77, of King's Court, received the sad intelligence Thursday morning of the death of his father, Frank Gunn, at his home in Reynoldsville, a short time before after a lingering illness.